Thomas Bateman, Greene County, Mississippi, on 10 September 1833 made application for a pension based on service in the American Revolution. In this application he stated that he was born in Bedford County, Virginia 29 January 1755 and that he knew his birthdate because his father had told him and he had written it down. He said that he first volunteered for service 5 May 1776 at Tarborough, about twenty-five miles from where he lived in Edgecombe County, North Carolina. He served for about three months as a private in Captain Christopher Cofel's Company, Colonel James Gee's North Carolina Regiment and that he volunteered again in 1776 and served six weeks as a private in Captain Johas Johnston's company, Colonel Thomas Ervine's North Carolina Regiment. He again volunteered 1 February 1781 and served as a private in Captain Exum Phillips' Company, Colonel William Linton's North Carolina regiment. He fought in the battle of Guilford and was discharged soon after that battle, having served a total of at least five years and five months until the end of the war.

Thomas Bateman's pension application showed that he had lived in North Carolina for eight years after the war then had moved to South Carolina and in 1818 had moved to Greene County, Mississippi. Isham Moody, Asa Woodward, and John Roberts testified to his age and character, but he knew no one who could prove his service. He reapplied 8 April 1834 and apparently at some time was granted a pension even though his first application was disapproved because he could not prove six months of continuous service. He was on the 1840 Mississippi Pension List, age eighty-six, Pension #R606.

Bedford County, Virginia records include: 1. From St. Paul's Parish Registers, John Bateman married Anne Williams 2 February 1740, Anne Bateman married John Limmit 6 April 1751, and Thomas Bateman married Winfred Keley 7 February 1771. 2. Reuben Bateman's personal property was sold by John Talbot in 1763. 3. John Bateman received a grant of land from Jesse Tate in 1784. 4. John Bateman died in 1807 and his estate was probated 22 June 1807. 5. Other Batemans mentioned after 1800 in the deed records were: William, Azel, Bazel, Alexander, Joel, Mary, Loyde, Sevina, Susanna, Oney, Ann, and Elizabeth. 6. Bateman marriages after 1800 were: a. Benjamin and Susanna Wright in 1804, b. Jinny and Jacob Coffey in 1807 c. Nancy and Jacob Coffey in 1809, d. Doshia and Robert Taylor in 1810, e. Anzel and Oney Wright in 1810, f. William and Nancy Higgins in 1823, g. John and Anne Phillips in 1823, h. Alexander and Susanna Phillips in 1825, i. Hopkins and Sarah Wilson in 1835. Thomas would have been only sixteen years old when the Thomas married Winfred Keley, however, he could have married that young, but probably is not that Thomas since his wife is shown as a Daniel later.

None of the Bedford County records prove the parents of Thomas, however, Reuben and John were the adult Batemans there when he was born. It is most likely that he was the son of John since he named his first son, John.

Thomas Bateman was on the 1790 Halifax, Edgecombe County, North Carolina census as 3 males +16, 2 males -16, and 2 females. His mother and father may have been with him on this census as no children born prior to 1774 have been found. The two males -16 would have been John and William and the female would have been Elizabeth who married John Roberts with whom Thomas lived in Greene County, Mississippi.

Records of Edgecombe County, North Carolina show that Thomas Bateman and John Singleton witnessed a deed from William Daniel and Elizabeth Daniel to Jesse Bateman of the same county for 20 pounds for a tract of land of fifty acres on Lightwood Knot Branch and Bare Branch adjoining John Harper, DB 3-401, page 121, 25 December 1777. He also witnessed a deed there on 29 December 1779 and on 12 November 1783 William Daniel sold to William Alford of Wayne County, North Carolina for 83 pounds specie a tract of 125 acres on the north bank of Toisnot Creek on Bare Branch of

of the Lightwood Knot Branch adjoining Jesse Bateman, Joshua Bentley and the said Daniel, it being a part of the larger tract granted to William Bentley, the Elder by patent in 1743, DB 4-265. Elizabeth Daniel gave by deed of gift land in Edgecombe County to her children, William Daniel, Simon Daniel, Elijah Daniel, Darcus Harper, Elizabeth Bateman, and Drewsillah Bateman, DB 6-9 and 247. By 15 February 1793 part of this land was sold by William Daniel of Edgecombe County, Elijah Daniel of Glasgow County, North Carolina, Jesse Bateman of Johnston County, North Carolina, Simon Daniel, THOMAS BATEMAN, Michael Ward, and John Harper of Salem County, South Carolina in a joint bill of sale to Jacob Barnes of Edgecombe County, DB 8-129, as quoted on page 17 of KINFOLKS OF EDGECOMBE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, Joseph W. Watson, 304 Piedmont Avenue, Rocky Mount, North Carolina. Since this land was granted among others to Drewsillah and Elizabeth Bateman by their mother, and was sold by Jesse and Thomas Bateman, it is conclusive that the two Daniel sisters married Jesse and Thomas. Since a later deed showed that Jesse was married to Drewsilla, it is, therefore, to be concluded that Thomas was married to Elizabeth Daniel. This placed Thomas in Salem County, Sumter District, South Carolina by 1793, just as he had said in his pension application.

The 1800 census of Sumter County (no longer listed as Salem and Sumter), South Carolina shows Thomas Bateman with 1 male and 1 female age 26-45, 1 male 10-16, and 1 male and 1 female -10.

By 1810 the following Batemans were on the Sumter County, South Carolina census: 1. Thomas with 1 male +45, 1 male 26-45, 1 female +100, 1 female 25-45, and 1 female -10 and 100 slaves. 2. William Bateman 1 male and 1 female age 26-45, 1 female 10-16 and 50 slaves. 3. John Bateman 1 male 16-26, 1 female 10-16 and 1 male -10 with 7 slaves. All three of these Batemans lived next to each other no doubt on the 1,000 acres patented to John. The +45 and +100 people on Thomas' census would have been his or Elizabeth's parents as he was the one age 26-45.

Thomas Bateman was last of record in 1840 living with John and Elizabeth Roberts in Leaksville, Greene County, Mississippi. No probate has been found for him and most of the records were burned in courthouse fires.

Wife determined by deeds signed by Thomas Bateman for William and Elizabeth Daniel and from deed from Elizabeth Daniel to her daughters and sons, including Elizabeth Bateman and Drucilla Bateman, later shown as wife of Jesse Bateman.

William Bateman, older son of Thomas and Elizabeth Bateman, was born in Edgecombe County, Halifax District, North Carolina about 1784 as determined by the 1790, 1800, and 1810 census records.

He acquired 425 acres of the 1,000 acres patented to his brother, John, 1 February 1820. This land was located near the swamp waters of Black River and the Big Beaver Dam and Little Beaver Dam Branches of Cedar Creek and was bounded by Henry Stokes, T. Williams, the Stradfords, Jenkins, Robert Ellis, and Pierce Hickman (SC State Grants, Vol. 64, page 85 and William Bateman's Estate Papers, Bundle 14, Pack 2, September 1836, Sumter County Probate Records.)

On the 1820 census of Sumter County William Bateman lived next door to John, as would be expected from this land division. At that time he had 1 male age 26-45, 1 male 16-26, 2 males -10, 1 female 26-45, and 2 slaves.

He died in Sumter County, South Carolina in November, 1828 as shown by the following estate settlement papers:

1. 10 November 1828 Absilla Bateman applied for letters of administration of estate of William Bateman. Same was published 15 November 1828.
2. 17 November 1828 John and Absilla Bateman and John Robertson were bound unto William Potts, Ordinary, as executors of the estate of William Bateman and Edmund Stucky, William Hand, John Robertson, William Dunn, and John Woodard, Jr. were appointed appraisers of the estate.
3. 24 November 1828 inventory and appraisement were presented to probate court.
4. 16 December 1828 sale of personal estate took place.
5. 12 January 1829 heirs of William Bateman were listed as John, Briant, Alexander, Mary Ann, Atley, and William J. Bateman.
6. During 1829-30 various settlements and payments were reported.
7. 1830 Absilla accounted for money paid her son, Briant for one month's work.
8. 30 September 1836 Absilla petitioned to sell 425 acres of land purchased from John Bateman.
9. 3 October 1836 William W. Bateman was appointed guardian for William's under-age children and Absilla, John, Bryant, and W. W. Bateman, (John's son), guardian of Alexander, Mary Ann, Atley, and William J. were required to appear to show cause why real estate should not be sold.
10. 10 October 1836 William Bateman's lands were advertised for sale and were bought at auction by his son, John, for $250.00.
11. 4 April 1839 Absilla petitioned that the land sold to John be put back as it was before the sale due to two facts. She had changed her mind about moving West, and John had not complied with the terms of the sale. John agreed to this action and it was granted.
12. 6 December 1843 John Bateman petitioned the court for partition of the land so he could have his share. Two appraisals were given for a value of $1,000.00 for the 425 acres. By this time Mary Ann was shown to be Mrs. Wiley Johnson.

13. 4 April 1844 the court approved of selling the land and on 6 July 1844 the sale was set for 1 January 1845. On 9 November 1844 the sale was reset for 1 January 1846.

14. 21 August 1845 Briant Bateman petitioned for Absilla to account for not making distribution of the remainder of William Bateman's estate and 17 December Absilla was ordered to render such an accounting.

15. 23 December 1845 John Bateman acknowledged receipt of $51.71 as his share of his father's estate.

16. In January, 1846 William Bateman's mill was sold to his son, John and on 2 January 1846 the last settlement was shown.

The length of time it took to settle an estate which was not settled by a will is shown to emphasize how important it is to have a will.

Absilla Bateman was shown on the 1830 Sumter County census as 1 female 30-40, 1 female 5-10, and one female -5, with 2 males 15-20, 1 male 5-10, and 1 male -5. She was on the 1840 census as age 40-50 with 1 female 10-15, 1 male 15-20, and 1 male 10-15. Absilla was not shown on the 1850 census. Either she had moved to Alabama or had died. John Bateman's widow, Elizabeth H. had moved to Henry County, Alabama before 1850 and Atty Bateman married John Deese there 16 June 1851 and William Bateman married Jane A. Albritton 9 November 1850 in Henry County. There may be no connection, however, Absilla and William had children of these names who were not shown on the 1850 Sumter County census.

The 1850 census of Sumter County listed the following Batemans:

Briant age 36, Matilda age 35, Mary age 14, Thomas P. age 11, Martha age 9, Jesse age 1 living in same household as Mr. Atkinson age 22, Isaac Robinson age 76, and Sarah Robinson age 73. John Bateman age 38, Margaret age 38, Ransom S. age 14, Francis V. age 10, Henry age 8, Scarborough age 7, Emerentha age 3, and Addison age 3 months were also there. All were shown as born in South Carolina except the Robinsons, probably Matilda Bateman's parents, who were born in North Carolina. William Bateman age 47 and Martha Bateman age 80 were the only other Batemans.

From the names of their children, John Bateman's wife, Margaret, was no doubt a daughter of Henry and Francis Scarborough. Elizabeth H. Bateman who married the Reverend John Bateman was also their daughter based on the fact that she named her children Emerentha and Henry Denson. The 80 year old Martha Bateman is a mystery in that Martha Bateman, wife of John, was supposed to have died prior to his marriage to Elizabeth H. Also, Martha Bateman at the most would have been 54 years old in 1850. Who was this William Bateman age 47? He was too old to have been the son of John who was not married at that time. Where were Absilla and William's children Alexander and William J.? Had they gone to Alabama with Elizabeth H. Bateman? Since these are not direct line ancestors of the author, perhaps some other Bateman researcher will find these answers.

To show the relationship of the Batemans and Scarborougs, the 1850 listing of Scarborougs follows: Henry age 70, Francis age 58, Nancy age 30, Edmund age 27, Emerintha age 24, Francis age 24, Ransom age 35, William age 43, Hardy age 30, and Alfred age 50. In a separate household William S. Scarborough lived with Susan Scarborough age 14 and Sebastian Bateman age 14 all born in South Carolina.

There are several other facts that create questions concerning the family of William Bateman. Included in a summons dated 5 March 1844 were Edmund Stucky and E. J. Stuckey, W. W. Bateman, still guardian of the minor children, John Bateman, Absilla, Briant, Margaret, and Mary Ann Bateman. Apparently Alexander, Atley, and William J. were still minors. What relationship did Edmund and E. J. Stuckey have in the context of William's estate? Another document dated 10 March 1844 stated that Wylie Johnson and wife were beyond the limits of said state, South Carolina. It appears that between 5 March and 10 March 1844 Mary Ann Bateman married Wylie Johnson and had moved out of the state.

Descendents of William and Absilla Bateman continued to live in Sumter County as shown by these census records: 1. 1870 Bryant Bateman age 58, Matilda age 54, Martha age 28, Jesse B. Bateman age 21, Isaac Watson age 15, Sarah Watson age 12, Fannie Watson age 9, E. Theodora Watson age 6, and Thomas Watson age 4, probably grandchildren and children of either Mary or Martha. Also in 1870 in Sumter County was E. H. (probably Henry, son of John Bateman,) and his family of M. P. age 26, H. B. (male) age 4, and M. P. (female) age 1.

By 1880 Bryant was no longer on the census, but E. H. age 40 had added R. M. (male) age 8, F. E. (female) age 6, D. S. (male) age 4 and Charlotte age 5 months. A William J. Bateman age 40, Mary C. age 40, Alexander age 10, Fletcher age 8, Arthur age 6, Ernest age 4, and Catherine age 2. All these were born in South Carolina.

This William J. Bateman could not have been William and Absilla's son as their William J. was born before 1828. He was not the son of either Bryant or John, so had to have been the son of either Alexander or William J., William's sons, neither of whom have been found on any census record.

According to the HISTORY OF SUMTER COUNTY, Briant Bateman lived below the jail in Manchester, South Carolina in 1838 and was the jailor when Minor McCoy, Negro stealer, escaped. The same history stated that Deputy Sheriff E. H. Bateman was removed from office in 1873 after he exposed Governor Moses when he threw out names of certain whites whose names were drawn for jury. At that drawing were Sheriff Tindally, auditor Corbett, Jack Walker, and the Reverend Prince Dickerson.

John Bateman, son of Thomas and Elizabeth Bateman, was born 16 May 1788 in Edgecombe County, North Carolina. He married first Martha, maiden name unknown, who was born 31 December 1792. Martha died 10 January 1827 and John married Elizabeth H. (probably Scarborough), who married after John's death Gibson Boyett 12 November 1836 in Henry County, Alabama. John died 8 June 1832 and his estate was in probate 27 August 1832 and listed his children then living. From the probate records and from family Bibles it is known that John and Martha had the following children:

1. William W. Bateman, born 23 September 1809
2. Sarah Bateman, born 14 May 1811, died of poison 30 June 1832
3. Elizabeth Bateman, born in 1813, died 2 November 1848
4. Stephen W. Bateman born in 1814 moved to Alabama.
5. Martha Bateman born in 1816
6. James Bateman born in 1818
7. Elijah Bateman born in 1820, died 16 January 1842, William W. adminstrator.

Children of John and Elizabeth H. Bateman:

8. Charles I. Bateman born 2 July 1828, married Eliza Cole, died 14 February 1868
9. R. J. Hartwell, twin, born 3 May 1829, died 14 May 1829
10. Jane, twin, born 3 May 1829, died 28 May 1829

John Bateman was first of record in Sumter County, South Carolina when he was on the 1810 census as age 16-26 with wife 16-18 and 1 male -10 and 7 slaves. John Bateman was granted 1,000 acres of land by the State of South Carolina 1 February 1820, Volume 46, page 264, State Grants. He conveyed 425 acres of this land to his brother, William. Salem County, Sumter District was the same as present day Sumter County.

John Bateman was shown on the 1820 Sumter County census as age 26-45 with wife same age, 1 male 10-16, 3 males -10, and 3 females -10. By 1830 same place he was age 30-50 and another male of same age group was with him. Also with him was 1 male 15-20, 2 males 10-15, 1 male 5-10, 1 female 20-30, 2 females 15-20, and 1 female -5 with 17 slaves. His son, William W. Bateman was listed as 1 male 200-30, 1 female 20-30, and 2 males -5 with 7 slaves. By 1850 only William W. Bateman age 30-40 with wife same age and 2 males -5 was on the Sumter Districe, Salem County census. In 1840 only William Bateman age 47 and Martha Bateman age 80 were shown on the census in addition to those shown under William Bateman's history. Who was this Martha Bateman?

John Bateman was called to preach in 1824 and was ordained in 1830 to preach in Baptist churches. He preached at the Piedmont and Bethany Baptist Churches among others.

He was poisoned by a colored slave on 8 June 1832 as was his daughter, Sarah, who died 30 June 1832. The Charleston Baptist Association minutes of their 1832 meetings include the following article:

Bateman 9

PASCAGOULA LIBRARY
GENEALOGY COLLECTION

"Reverend JOHN BATEMAN appears on our minutes as a delegate from the Piedmont Church, which was constituted 30 September 1810, in the year 1822. He was called to exercise his gifts in preaching in 1821 and was solemnly ordained to the work of the Gospel Ministry in 1830. His course has been short, but useful according to his measure."

"The Church in announcing the painful fact of his death remark, 'We cannot dwell upon the alleged causes* of our beloved brother's death, suffice it to say, that his last moments presented a scene truly solemn and highly instructive. He was not afraid to die.' His last moments indeed bore ample testimony that he knew whom he had believed. Viewing himself as a monument of the unmerited mercy of God, who had graciously sustained him, not only in all the relations of life, but in the furtherance of that holy cause that had ever fired his soul with zeal, he could say with unfaltering voice, he wished his last moments to be spent in the service of his God, and with a fervour never before witnessed, urged upon those around him the great necessity of repentance towards God, and faith in our Lord Jesus Christ. A few moments after which he fell asleep in Christ without a struggle or a groan, Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace."

"The Bethany Church which shared in his labours, likewise speak in terms of great affection and respect. He died 8 June 1832"

*Died of poison.

Even though the Reverend John Bateman died in June, the first action of probate was 27 August 1832 when William W. Bateman applied for Letters of Administration. All probate records are in Bundle 6, Pack 1, Probate Records of Sumter County, South Carolina. Papers were filed on 3 September at which time William W. put up his bond, recorded in Book CCC. Henry Scarborough and John Woodard signed with William W. for the $2,000.00 bond. It is believed that Henry Scarborough was Elizabeth H. Bateman's father since she named her children Emerantha and Henry Denson, Scarborough unusual names.

On 8 September 1832 the court appointed John Woodard, Sr., John Kennedy, Drewry Boykin, Alfred Scarborough, A. G. Crosswell, and Henry Scarborough or any three of them to make an inventory of the estate of John Bateman. They appeared before A. Scarborough, Justice of the Peace. They made the inventory on 8 September 1832 and showed the value, exclusive of slaves and land, to be $1,984.99. This included notes from Starkey Stucky, Daniel McKaskell, Eli Johnson, William Crosswell, and Calvin McClendon.

The same day, 8 September 1832, a request was made to sell the perishable property with authority to extend twelve months credit to purchasers with the reason given that there were many debts to pay. This request was signed by William W. as administrator and Elizabeth H. as widow, Elizabeth, Martha, Stephen W., James, Elijah, and Charles I. as children. Sale was granted to be held 29 September.

The Court ordered the same heirs to appear on 1 October 1832 to show cause why the real estate of 425 acres on the waters of Lynches Creek should not be sold in order to allow Elizabeth H. Bateman her dower and the children their shares.

A sale was held 29 September 1832 to dispose of the perishable property of John Bateman. The word "perishable" seems a misnomer in that this sale included tools, equipment, saddles, etc. which do not seem perishable. The term was then used to denote anything that was excess to the immediate needs of the heirs and also those crops and animals that were not needed as much as the money from them was needed.

Those who purchased from the estate included Elizabeth H. a spinning wheel, a flax wheel, a pair of harnesses, a smoothing iron, a bucket, a bed, a cupboard, a set of tumblers, a lot of books, a chest, the family Bible, a basket and gourds, and a lot of coopers ware. William W. bought a broad ax, 2 pots, a loom, a gun, a lot of ploughs, a lot of corn, a lot of fodder, a pair of fire dogs, 2 bed trays, a bucket and coffee pot, a lot of chairs, a bed, a pair of tables, a slab, a bottle of sweet oil, a lot of dishes, a lot of crockery, a desk and books, a coffee mill, and a shot bag. Elizabeth Bateman, daughter, bought a spinning wheel, a bed, and a pair of cords. Daughter Martha bought a bed and a table. Son Stephen W. bought a razor brush. The other Bateman children were not shown. Absilla Bateman, widow of John's brother, William, purchased a bed and her sons, John and Bryant, bought items. Insofar as heirs were concerned, the word BOUGHT indicated allocations of their share of the estate and these things were charged against their shares. Other purchasers included Henry Scarborough, Stephen Smith, Edmund Stucky, John Kennedy, Isaac Woodard, John Darity, Drury Boykin, Harmon Harris, Jesse Holland, Abel Dixon, James Jenkins, Sr., Alfred Scarborough, John O'Kelly, Herman Smith, Samuel Jackson, Thomas Teaser, Ripley Copeland, John Bell, Sr., W. G. Brown, A. Hambleton, and Honbreck Barns. The sorrel mare, Cate, went to Stephen Smith, and the sorrel mare, Pigeon, went to Samuel Jackson.

The heirs were authorized to sell the land on 15 October 1832. The account of the sales of the perishable goods was rendered 15 October also, Book HHH. By 6 November 1832 William W. had sold the land for $650.00. This money was obligated to William Potts, Ordinary, (Probate Judge) as part of the $1,300.00 bond owed by William W. and the other securities. William W. signed the obligation and promised to make the payment by 6 November. His cousin, John Bateman, was a witness. A receipt for this $650.00 was dated 13 January 1833. The same date creditors were paid a total of $1,677.48. This included $623.00 for attorney fees. An additional accounting of payments was made in 1834 for $1,194.94 and for $110.57 including attorney fees to John B. Miller, filed 18 May 1835. The same date William W. mortgaged some of his property because the payments of the estate exceeded the income. This was the last document of the probate proceedings. There were no documents to show slave sales, however, they must have been sold or there would not have been enough money to make the payments that were shown.

By the time the estate was settled, Elizabeth H. Bateman had few possessions and the responsibility for the minor children including her only child, Charles I, who was born in 1828. She was next of record in Henry County, Alabama when she married Gibson Boyett 12 November 1836. By 1850 she and Gibson were in Lowndes County, Alabama with their twins Emerentha and Henry Denson, age 12, next door to her son, Charles I. and his wife, Eliza Cole Bateman. Elizabeth Bateman Boyett wrote at least two letters to her daughter, Emerentha, in 1867 telling of having cancer and not expecting to live much longer. Copies of those letters are attached to the Boyett chapter. She died in late 1867 or early 1868 as Gibson Boyett married Josephine Amos in 1868.

It is not known what happened to the other of Reverend John Bateman's children, but his son, Stephen W. was on the 1850 Barbour County, Alabama census as age 38, born in South Carolina with wife, Elizabeth, age 24, born in Georgia, Mary age 13 born in Georgia, William, age 11, Sarah age 8, James age 5, and John age 2 all born in Alabama. He must have had a first wife according to the age of Mary Bateman. He lived next door to Mary Temples, age 48 and her children John age 22, William age 14, Jane age 12, and Thomas age 9 all born in Georgia. Barbour and Henry counties are on the Alabama, Georgia boundary next to each other. In the marriage records of Lowndes, Henry, and Montgomery Counties are listed Sarah Bateman married George Hutto 11 July 1868 and Mary T. Bateman married Henry G. Cloud. These may have been Stephen's children. Also in those marriage records was Atly Bateman married John T. Dees, 29 June 1851, and had children, John W., born in 1856, Vista Ann born in 1856, James born in 1858, and Georgia Ann born in 1859.

More research is needed and time does not permit such by the author to find out what happened to the other children of William, John, and Thomas Bateman.

There was a Thomas Bateman in Colorado County, Texas in 1850 age 52, born in South Carolina with children Thomas age 17, Martha age 16, Julia age 14, and Benjamin age 11 all born in Georgia. Thomas Bateman married Elizabeth Lookup 16 December 1850. She was the daughter of Alexander and Mary Lookup. Thomas and Elizabeth sold land to James Miller 29 July 1851. They were in process of divorce when Thomas died 1 February 1855 and his will was still being probated as of 1 February 1859, Probate Book A, page 359. His administrator was still trying to make a settlement of the divorce at that time. None of these descendants have been found to determine Thomas' relationship to John. Thomas, Sr.'s son, Thomas, bought 185 acres of land 12 April 1852 in Colorado County, DB H-197 and he and his wife sold 35 acres of this to James Miller 3 October 1857, DB J-496. This Colorado County, Texas Thomas, Sr. could have been the son of Thomas and Elizabeth, and brother of William and John, because on the 1800 census of Sumter District, Thomas had a son -10 and both William and John would have been older than that. Also, in Union County, South Carolina in 1800 was a William Bateman who could have been Thomas' son, or William could have been away somewhere as a sixteen year old.

The remainder of the Bateman history will concern descendants of Reverend John and Elizabeth H. Bateman's son, Charles I.
